HEADWAY BRADFORD

COMMITTEE MEMBERS REQUIRED

Headway Branch – supporting survivors of brain injury and their families' carers and professionals.

Do you have the necessary qualities to become a Member of a Committee maintaining and developing the values, vision and aims of Headway Bradford Branch?

We are looking for enthusiastic and committed people with a positive attitude to perform this exceptional and valued unpaid role. No previous knowledge/experience of the effects of brain injury needed – just a willingness to learn. A full role description will be provided on request.

If you possess these qualities and can commit between 2 and 6 hours each month, this could provide a unique opportunity and rewarding experience.

To find out more please contact:
